On behalf of the student representatives and Western Albemarle High School, Margaret Lee shared updates and concerns from the student body.

Superintendent Haas shared information with the Albemarle County School Board and thanked them for the opportunity to address an important topic on the minds of many in our community. Recent inquiries about the potential impact of immigration enforcement activities in our schools have prompted timely discussions and preparations within our leadership team and School Board.

AGENDA ITEM NO. 4.0 PUBLIC COMMENT

Agenda Item No. 4.1 Public Comment – other matters

Keith Kobyra, a resident of the Rio District, spoke in support of the Junior ROTC program, particularly the one at Monticello. He urged the board to reconsider its decision to terminate the program, emphasizing its positive impact on students and the community. Mr. Kobyra shared his daughter's success story, which included receiving a four-year ROTC scholarship and two nominations to the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, opportunities he attributed to the Junior ROTC program. He acknowledged the program's low participation but explained that this was due to its opening during the COVID-19 pandemic, which affected many educational programs. He pointed out that the program's participation has already doubled this year, including freshmen. Mr. Kobyra also raised concerns about the termination process, stating that a 12-month notice is typically required by contract. He asked the board to extend the program for at least one more year to comply with the notice requirement and allow more students to benefit from the program's opportunities. He concluded by urging the board to reinstate the program to continue providing life-changing experiences for students.

Agenda Item No. 4.2 Public Hearing – Rio School Board Seat Candidates

Michael Powers, a parent of two Monticello High School graduates and an Albemarle County taxpayer, expressed his support for the Junior ROTC program, emphasizing its value in promoting diversity and enhancing school opportunities. He also took a moment to offer condolences to the family, friends, and colleagues of Chuck Pace, praising his participation in the democratic process. Powers highlighted the importance of democracy and the elected board members' responsibility to uphold it. He noted that the board members had all earned significant votes from their communities in their respective elections, which gives them the opportunity to honor those democratic decisions again by appointing Jim Dillenbeck to the board. Powers stated that Dillenbeck had earned 4,069 votes in his recent election and had already done the work of engaging with the community, making him uniquely qualified to step into the role immediately. He concluded by urging the board to appoint Dillenbeck to honor the democracy of the community and the voters who supported him.

Andrew Cox, a parent of two children in Albemarle County Schools, expressed his support for Jim Dillenbeck's appointment to the school board. Mr. Cox shared his positive experience with the robust support his freshman son has received at Monticello High School, particularly highlighting the support for his son's IEP. He then emphasized his concern for all students in the district, particularly underprivileged students, who continue to struggle despite past efforts. He noted that Jim Dillenbeck's commitment to data-driven decision-making and his experience as a teacher uniquely position him to address these ongoing challenges. He also pointed out that Mr. Dillenbeck received a significant portion of the vote in the recent election, further underscoring his community support. For these reasons, he urged the board to appoint Jim Dillenbeck to the position.

Beth McDowell, a resident of the Rio District, strongly recommended Jim Dillenbeck for the open position on the school board. She shared that she has known Mr. Dillenbeck for nine years and has seen him work diligently with youth in their church. Ms. McDowell highlighted Mr. Dillenbeck's experience as the only applicant who has taught in Albemarle County Schools, specifically noting his seven years of teaching at Albemarle High School. She emphasized his understanding of the needs of teachers, students, and parents, which would be a valuable asset to the board. She also pointed out that he was the only applicant to campaign for the position and won 47% of the vote, with over 4,000 votes from the Rio District. She concluded by praising Mr. Dillenbeck's character, work ethic, and commitment to providing excellent education to the community's youth, urging the board to consider his appointment.

Rydell Payne expressed his support for Jim Dillenbeck, noting he has known him since 1985. Mr. Payne shared that Mr. Dillenbeck has had a diverse career, including working in the county, spending time in Seattle, and later returning to work for Northwestern Mutual for many years. He highlighted Mr. Dillenbeck's sincerity, curiosity, and collaborative nature, describing him as someone who listens, asks thoughtful questions, and follows up on concerns. Mr. Payne also mentioned working with Mr. Dillenbeck on a charity biking challenge that raised significant funds. He emphasized Dillenbeck's caring nature, both personally and professionally, and underscored his dedication, pointing out that he received 4,000 votes in his recent campaign. He urged the board to select Jim Dillenbeck for the position.

JT Maxwell, a resident of Woodland Road, spoke in support of Jim Dillenbeck, emphasizing his personal character and professional integrity. Mr. Maxwell shared that he has known Mr. Dillenbeck for over 25 years, first as a teacher and coach in Albemarle County. He praised Dillenbeck's trustworthiness, highlighting his ability to work well as a team player both with colleagues and elected officials. He also pointed out that Mr. Dillenbeck's commitment to public service is demonstrated by his repeated willingness to offer his services. He concluded by urging the board to consider Dillenbeck as a colleague, noting that he would be an asset to the community and the school system.

Victoria Lee spoke in support of Leslie Pryor as a candidate for the Albemarle County School Board, representing the Rio District. Ms. Lee shared her background, having lived in the area since 2005, with both of her children graduating from UVA. She emphasized her strong belief in the value of education, having returned to school in her 30s to complete both her BA and master's at Georgetown University. She described her professional relationship with Leslie, having worked closely with her at the family court in collaboration with Region 10 and CASA to help families recover from addictions. Ms. Lee highlighted Ms. Pryor's extensive background, including her service as an Army Reserve officer, her work with youth and families, and her leadership in various community roles, such as coaching, scouting, and teaching. She praised Ms. Pryor's work ethic, integrity, and dedication to service, both professionally and personally. She concluded by offering her unequivocal recommendation for Leslie Pryor for the Albemarle County School Board.

Chair Acuff acknowledged the board’s decision regarding the appointment to fill the vacant Rio District seat following the passing of Board Member Chuck Pace. She emphasized that this was not an easy decision, as seven highly qualified community members with diverse backgrounds, knowledge, and experience stepped forward, each demonstrating a strong commitment to public education and service.

The board carefully reviewed all applications and conducted interviews during a special meeting, expressing appreciation for the candidates’ dedication, preparation, and engagement. Chair Acuff noted that the selection process was challenging, but the board prioritized enhancing its collective skills, experience, and perspectives in making the final decision.

The appointed individual will receive a briefing from the school board attorney and board members in the coming weeks and will officially join the board at its February 13, 2025, meeting. Chair Acuff also clarified that this interim appointment will extend only through December 31, 2024. The Rio District school board seat will be on the general election ballot on November 4, 2024, with the elected candidate serving a full four-year term.
