Steps:

1. Review the policy against the checklist. If you can answer “yes” to item 1, “no” to item 2, and “yes” to item 3, then the equity threshold has been met; if not, proceed to step 2.
2. Make revisions to the policy
3. Review the revised policy against the checklist
4. After the second review, if you cannot answer “yes” to item 1, “no” to item 2, and “yes” to item 3, or if you are unsure what changes to make, this warrants referral to the review committee

Equity Policy Review
	Yes	No	Comments
1. Will the policy have a positive impact on equity, inclusion and full participation of all people?	X		This policy certainly doesn’t negatively impact equity practices and efforts. It simply prohibits all employees from committing legal action on behalf of the school division in the absence of an approval process.
2a. Is there a likelihood of adverse impacts with respect to equity (or are there already adverse impacts)?		X
2b. If yes, which “classes” might be affected?	<input type="checkbox"/> Sex <input type="checkbox"/> Gender (Identity and/or Expression) <input type="checkbox"/> Race <input type="checkbox"/> Color <input type="checkbox"/> National origin <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Disability <input type="checkbox"/> Religion <input type="checkbox"/> Ancestry <input type="checkbox"/> Age <input type="checkbox"/> English language status <input type="checkbox"/> Marital Status <input type="checkbox"/> Genetic information <input type="checkbox"/> Sexual orientation <input type="checkbox"/> All classes <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Cannot identify a specific class
3. Is there anything in place in the policy or elsewhere to ensure accountability (such as equity-focused benchmarks or data points)?	X		By nature of legal action, accountability would exist through the School Board Attorney’s and Superintendent’s approval/disapproval. Nothing quantitative, however.
4. Should changes be made to make the policy more equitable and inclusive?
5. Should this policy be referred to the Equity Policy Review Committee?

Note: The review committee will consist of a panel of at least three individuals representing ACPS Staff and Diversity & Equity Advisory Committee (DEAC) members who have received relevant training in using the equity tool. Updated February 2019
