Steps:

1. Review the policy against the checklist. If you can answer “yes” to item 1, “no” to item 2, and “yes” to item 3, then the equity threshold has been met; if not, proceed to step 2.
2. Make revisions to the policy
3. Review the revised policy against the checklist
4. After the second review, if you cannot answer “yes” to item 1, “no” to item 2, and “yes” to item 3, or if you are unsure what changes to make, this warrants referral to the review committee

Equity Policy Review
	Yes	No	Comments
1. Will the policy have a positive impact on equity, inclusion and full participation of all people?	X		Policy ensures that the organization is emergency-ready in the case of an emergency. Emergency preparedness requires ALL ACPS employees to be ready in the case that their role requires them to be.
2a. Is there a likelihood of adverse impacts with respect to equity (or are there already adverse impacts)?		X
2b. If yes, which “classes” might be affected?	<input type="checkbox"/> Sex <input type="checkbox"/> Gender (Identity and/or Expression) <input type="checkbox"/> Race <input type="checkbox"/> Color <input type="checkbox"/> National origin <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Disability <input type="checkbox"/> Religion <input type="checkbox"/> Ancestry <input type="checkbox"/> Age <input type="checkbox"/> English language status <input type="checkbox"/> Marital Status <input type="checkbox"/> Genetic information <input type="checkbox"/> Sexual orientation <input type="checkbox"/> All classes <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Cannot identify a specific class
3. Is there anything in place in the policy or elsewhere to ensure accountability (such as equity-focused benchmarks or data points)?	X		Emergency response is carried out through procedures. Accountability is managed through the expectation that ALL employees be ready to respond if needed. The emergency preparedness procedures historically have also focused on student/community members in focused ways meeting specific needs.
4. Should changes be made to make the policy more equitable and inclusive?

5. Should this policy be referred to the Equity Policy Review Committee?
