Steps:

1. Review the policy against the checklist. If you can answer “yes” to item 1, “no” to item 2, and “yes” to item 3, then the equity threshold has been met; if not, proceed to step 2.
2. Make revisions to the policy
3. Review the revised policy against the checklist
4. After the second review, if you cannot answer “yes” to item 1, “no” to item 2, and “yes” to item 3, or if you are unsure what changes to make, this warrants referral to the review committee

If yes, which “classes” might be affected?	<input type="checkbox"/> Sex <input type="checkbox"/> Gender (Identity and/or Expression) <input type="checkbox"/> Race <input type="checkbox"/> Color <input type="checkbox"/> National origin <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Disability <input type="checkbox"/> Religion <input type="checkbox"/> Ancestry <input type="checkbox"/> Age <input type="checkbox"/> English language status <input type="checkbox"/> Marital Status <input type="checkbox"/> Genetic information <input type="checkbox"/> Sexual orientation <input type="checkbox"/> All classes <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Cannot identify a specific class
3. Is there anything in place in the policy or elsewhere to ensure accountability (such as equity-focused benchmarks or data points)?	X		Our new vendor does have the capability to illuminate participation by role and department/school. This allows us to make employees aware on a targeted basis, as some employees benefit from extra support.
4. Should changes be made to make the policy more equitable and inclusive?
5. Should this policy be referred to the Equity Policy Review Committee?

Note: The review committee will consist of a panel of at least three individuals representing ACPS Staff and Diversity & Equity Advisory Committee (DEAC) members who have received relevant training in using the equity tool. Updated February 2019
